Could her "gift" for sexual healing really be a curse that dooms Nikki McClellan to an eternity of flings? What's the point of being supernaturally sexy, if the men in her life are so supercharged after making love they immediately hop away looking for the next woman's bed? A future as a onenight wonder is enough to make her give up the effort. That is, until she meets Dylan Cain. Suddenly Nikki understands the meaning of lust at first sight. And best of all? Not only has Dylan stayed until morning, he's come back for more...lots more!
